

IWAQ is a dynamic non-profit organisation providing the following services:

Settlement Grants Program – Provides settlement support to refugees and humanitarian entrants by providing referrals to mainstream organisations.

Home Care Packages (Levels 2 & 4) – Provides services to aged clients with complex care needs.

Disability Services – Provides programs to support adults with any disability to assist in their daily living activities.

Commonwealth Home Support Program (CHSP):

Community & Home Support – provides entry-level support services to frail, older people to assist them to live independently at home and in the community.

Group Social Support – structured activities provided in a group-based environment and designed to develop, maintain and support social interaction and independent living. Groups run on Tuesdays, Wednesdays (Ladies only) and Thursdays (Mixed).

Transport – Transport services that support access to the community (medical appointments, shopping, bus trips etc).

Cottage Respite – day and overnight community respite available at IWAQ's Salam (Peace) Respite Cottage.
